

Scholarships Available for Summer 2022 Masterclasses and Traditional Session

General Need-Based Scholarships

Several scholarships are available for performers who attend any of our sessions. These awards are not age restricted. To be considered for scholarship assistance, applicants should fill out the Scholarship Application Form below and email it to admissions@adamant.org by May 15, 2022.

- An accepted student into a masterclass or Traditional Session.
- All applicants are required to submit the first page of their U.S. Tax Return Forms, showing income (Form 1040). Dependents should submit the first page of their parent(s)/guardian(s) tax return. If the applicant is not a U.S. resident, they should submit the document that attests to the income and size of their family. Personal information, such as social security numbers, should be redacted.
- Contact information of piano teacher for a reference. This is not required if the applicant is a professional musician who no longer studies with a teacher.

Scholarships for Vermont Residents

A limited number of scholarships may be awarded to a resident of Vermont who attends the Traditional Session. These scholarships awards are based on merit and/or need and are not age restricted.

To be considered, applicants should fill out the Scholarship Application Form below and email it to admissions@adamant.org by May 15, 2022.

In addition, participants from Vermont should include the following materials with their application:

- The first page of their U.S. Tax Return Form (Form 1040) Personal information, such as social security numbers, should be redacted.
- YouTube videos consisting of 2 or more pieces in contrasting style

Once applications are received, the Director will schedule a Zoom conference call with the Vermont applicants and members of the selection committee to be held sometime between May 15 and June 1 for a short interview.
